

Pathways to Restorative Communities

Restorative Practices for Parents & Caregivers

Presentation and Parent Panel Discussion

Using Restorative Practices with your family can create a calmer home environment for everyone. You'll learn how proactive Restorative Practices build healthy relationships and understand how to use restorative language when responding to conflicts. Plus, we're thrilled to be featuring a group of parents who are invested in Restorative Practices and will share their stories and help answer your questions. Please join us!
